DIGITAL COLOR PROOFING MADE EASY

When your work is color critical and time sensitive, there's a difference between a color accurate digital proof and a hard copy proof...

TIME MONEY EFFICIENCY

Which can you afford to waste?

Remote Director is the only software solely focused on digital color proofing. It works across platforms, operating systems, time zones to enable verified color accuracy and collaboration between stakeholders.

Stop wasting time, money, and energy with hard copy proofs. If your work requires fast, accurate digital color proofing, you need ICScolor and Remote Director.

TIME SAVING – instant delivery of digital proofs to all stakeholders allows your products to get to market and clients faster

COST EFFECTIVE – save time and money wasted on shipping and reduce errors by accessing fast accurate proofs right from your desktop

QUALITY IMPROVEMENT – more accurate expanded gamut and multi color proofs

STAY DIGITAL – heal the break in the digital workflow caused by hard copy proofs

COMMUNICATION IMPROVING – maintain secure open lines of communication and improve collaboration with access to all versions

SUSTAINABLE – cuts down on waste creating a greener workflow for your packaging and commercial customers

RemoteDirector
the world leader in collaborative soft proofing
